

There are homeless women veterans in Seminole County

Women veterans have one of the highest unemployment rates

Joining Forces for Women

A Challenge ...

- to change how we think
- to respect the women who are serving
- to understand the price they pay
- to know what we can do

Business and Professional Women's Foundation

Speaker Venita Garvin Valdez of BPW Foundation, a leading advocate for working women, will introduce Joining Forces for Women, an initiative to assist returning women veterans.

A local veteran will also share her experiences.

Thursday, November 17

Patio Grill Restaurant, 2900 S. Orlando Ave. (17-92), Sanford
Lunch and Networking @ 11:30 a.m., program begins @ noon

Reservations are required: 407-339-9266 or LWVseminole@gmail.com

Pay by cash or check at the door

Luncheon includes buffet, beverage, tax and gratuity.

Cost: $17 League members: $15

Hear this and other previous League programs on Heard in Central Florida (HCF), presented by Carroll McKenney Public Media. Visit HCF on-line at cmfmedia.org. Click on the green and white

The mission of the League of Women Voters of Seminole County is to promote political responsibility through encouraging informed and active participation in government and to act on selected governmental issues. For more information, visit the LWVSC web site: LWVseminole.org.

P O Box 160394, Altamonte Springs, FL 32716-0394
www.lwvseminole.org

Phone 407-339-9266
lwvseminole@gmail.com